

HE GOES BEFORE US: CHAPLAIN WITH THE BILLY GRAHAM RAPID RESPONSE TEAM

God is not surprised by any storms in our lives. In fact, we often see Him most during these difficult times. As a rapid response chaplain with the Billy Graham Rapid Response Team, Ginger Sanders has seen Him firsthand. She shares her experiences and those of other chaplains in He Goes Before Us, a collection of thirty-one stories from the front lines of both natural and man-made disasters. Trained and often sent out on a moments notice when catastrophe strikes, the chaplains give physical, emotional, and spiritual care to those who need it most. From the floods of Iowa to the scene of the horrific theater shooting in Aurora, Colorado, Ginger and her fellow chaplains continually see God at work. Lives are changed and souls are saved through His amazing hand. Each story in this collection is unique. Chaplains pray with a group of teenagers after the Sandy Hook Elementary tragedy, save a man on the verge of suicide, and help a Japanese woman turn to Christ. In every situation, the chaplains see the dramatic presence of God even before they arrive, proving that only God can orchestrate these situations. Filled with love and hope, He Goes Before Us is an uplifting and moving testament to the power of the Gospel. Ginger Sanders is a chaplain coordinator with the Billy Graham Rapid Response Team, a ministry of the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association. Sanders and her husband, Denny, are also chaplains with their local law enforcement. An author and speaker, she enjoys sharing stories of seeing God at work in lives of people around the world. Sanders and her husband, live in Alabama where they enjoy family time with their four children and ten grandchildren.
